

Captain Beaver graduated from the University of Central Florida in 1989 with a degree in psychology and joined the Sheriff's Office that same year. He rose through the ranks in Uniform Patrol, and in 2004 Captain Beaver moved to the Criminal Investigations Division. When Sheriff Lewis took office in 2017, Captain Beaver moved to the Office of Professional Responsibility; however, he was promoted to Captain over the Specialized Investigations Division in July of that year. This division specializes in crimes committed against children and society's most vulnerable.

Additionally, Captain Beaver was as a member of the Sheriff's Office SWAT team for 22 years serving as its Tactical Commander for 13 years. In 2006, Captain Beaver graduated from the FBI National Academy (#227) at Quantico, and in 2017 he completed his Master of Criminal Justice degree from Anderson University where he serves as an adjunct criminal justice professor.

Captain Beaver is married and has three children. His oldest son is a deputy in Uniform Patrol at the Sheriff's Office.
